

FUNCTIONAL REQUIREMENT (FRS Document)

Project Name: Add Two Number Web App

Prepared by: Diwash Sharma
Date: 2026 May 9

1.1 INTRODUCTION

This document describes the functional requirements of the Add Two Numbers web application.

1.2 FUNCTIONAL MODULES

1. User Interface Module
 2. Calculation Module
 3. API Communication Module
 4. Database Storage Module
 5. History Display Module
-

1.3 FUNCTIONAL REQUIREMENTS

FR-1: Input First Number

Description

System shall allow user to enter first number.

Input

Numeric value

Output

Number stored temporarily.

FR-2: Input Second Number

Description

System shall allow user to enter second number.

Input

Numeric value

Output

Number stored temporarily.

FR-3: Add Button

Description

System shall provide Add button.

Action

When user clicks Add button:

- Request should be sent to backend API.
 - Backend performs calculation.
-

FR-4: Addition Calculation

Description

System shall calculate sum of two numbers.

Formula

The application uses the addition formula:

Input

Two numeric values.

Output

Calculated result.

FR-5: Display Result

Description

System shall display result on webpage.

Expected Result

Result should appear immediately after calculation.

FR-6: Store Data in Database

Description

System shall store:

- First number
- Second number
- Result

into MySQL database.

Database Table

calculations

FR-7: Display History

Description

System shall display previous calculations.

Data Displayed

- ID
- Number 1
- Number 2
- Result

1.4 ERROR HANDLING REQUIREMENTS

Error Scenario	Expected Behavior
Empty input	Show validation message
Invalid number	Reject input
Backend unavailable	Show error message
Database connection failure	Log error

1.5 USER INTERFACE REQUIREMENTS

- Webpage should be responsive.
- Inputs should be aligned properly.
- Button should be clickable.
- Result should be clearly visible.
- History table should display records properly.